FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Northbound Interstate 15 Closed at Poway Road/Rancho Peñasquitos Boulevard Bridge

SAN DIEGO – Construction will continue Wednesday night on the Poway Road/Rancho Peñasquitos Boulevard bridge over Interstate 15 (I-15), requiring the closure of northbound I-15 at Poway Road/Rancho Peñasquitos Boulevard from 11:30 p.m. to 4:30 a.m., according to the California Department of Transportation (Caltrans).

Motorists traveling north on I-15 will be detoured to east on Poway Road to north on Sabre Springs Parkway to west on Ted Williams Parkway onto northbound I-15. Detour signs will be posted to direct motorists around the closure.

The Poway Road/Rancho Peñasquitos Boulevard bridge over I-15 will also be closed on Wednesday beginning at 8 p.m. and reopening at 5 a.m. Motorists traveling west on Poway Road will be detoured north on I-15 to west on State Route 56 to south on I-15 onto westbound Rancho Peñasquitos Boulevard. Motorists traveling east on Rancho Peñasquitos Boulevard will be detoured south on I-15 to east on Mercy Road to north on I-15 onto eastbound Poway Road. Detour signs will be in place to direct motorists.

Bridge construction may cause noise but must be done at night to minimize disruptions to the weekday commute. For more information on the I-15 Express Lanes project, call the project information hotline at (866) 890-1397 or log-on to www.KeepSanDiegoMoving.com.
